SAVE THE DATE!

The Many Faces of Community Health Conference October 12-13, 2006

Hyatt Regency Hotel, Minneapolis (downtown)

An informative and practical conference for health professionals, clinic managers, public health agencies and community organizations working to address health disparities and chronic conditions

The conference offers two tracks -

1. Examining depression with diabetes & cardiovascular disease in disparate populations:
 - Assessment
 - Treatment – Guidelines & Medications
 - Ongoing Management
2. Promoting an integrated system of care: management and policy issues:
 - Billing for Mental Health Services
 - Pay for Performance Trends
 - Managing Cash Flow
 - Rev Up Your Revenue Cycle
 - Grant & Contribution Fund Management

We are excited to announce that H. Jack Geiger, MD will deliver the keynote address

Dr Jack Geiger has devoted his career to the issues of health, poverty and human rights. He initiated the community health center model in the U.S. and was a leader in the development of the national health center network currently serving some 14 million low-income patients. He is a Senior Member in the Institute of Medicine, and is a founding member and past president of two Nobel Peace Prize-winning organizations: Physicians for Social Responsibility and Physicians for Human Rights.

NOTE: This conference immediately precedes the 2006 Diabetes Expo on October 14th at the nearby Minneapolis Convention Center. Reserve a room and stay for the Expo!
